

Office Order

The Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department, Punjab has issued the Punjab Custom Milling of Paddy Policy (Kharif 2018-19) vide letter no. RP1(30)-2018/3008-3010 dated 04.09.2018 which has been amended from time to time.

2. In the clause 20 (v) of the ibid policy, the time schedule for delivery of custom milled rice has been fixed at 100% for 31.03.2019.

3. Further, the clause 21 (i) (j) of the ibid policy states as under-
"Acquisition cost of paddy along with interest paid/payable by Government on CCL shall be charged (from 01.11.2018 onwards till date of actual payment) on the stock of paddy for which miller fails to deliver the rice to FCI by 31st March 2019 unless the Government decides to extend the last date of milling and delivery of rice to FCI in view of shortage of space with FCI or any other administrative exigencies. However, the miller shall not be paid any milling charges on the paddy for such undelivered rice left even after the extended date of milling."

4. Without any prejudice to the interest of the State/State Procurement Agencies regarding any type of recoveries, relaxation is allowed in the above clauses to the extent that the Rice Millers would have to compulsorily complete the milling of paddy of KMS 2018-19 and deliver the resultant Custom Milled Rice in the Central Pool to Food Corporation of India by 30.04.2019 positively. However, if any rice miller fails to deliver the custom milled rice by 30.04.2019, action against him would be initiated according to the relevant clauses of the ibid policy.
